

THE BAD FAITH OF GREECE.

The Irregulars Were Ordered to Invade Macedonia by Army Officers.

TURKEY HAS THE BEST OF THE FIGHT.

She Can Easily Capture Larissa, While the Greeks Cannot Hope to Be Able to Enter Turkey in Force—Feroocious Fighting in Macedonia.

(Copyright, 1897, by Associated Press.)
ELASSANO (Headquarters of the Turkish Army, in Macedonia)—Thursday Evening April 15.—(Delayed in transmission.)—The representatives of the Associated Press at the Turkish headquarters has just seen a prisoner who was captured by the Turks during the fighting which has taken place at Krania with the Greek irregulars. The man was dirty, wore tattered clothes, and had on his head a helmet upon which was the badge of the Ethnikai Hetairia, the national league of Greece. He declared that he belonged to a band of irregulars which left Trikala after receiving an order from the inhabitants of that place, under the command of a captain and two lieutenants of the Greek regular army, and accompanied by a medical officer, who was wounded. This expedition the prisoner said was organized by officers of the Greek regular army, and was openly ordered to invade Turkey, not to harm the villagers, and to fight the Turkish troops only.

BAD FAITH OF GREEKS.
After these statements it is difficult to deny that the Greeks irregulars were organized by officers of the Greek regular army. This confirms the inquiries made on this subject by Seyfollah Bey, an officer on the staff of Edhem Pasha, the Turkish Commander-in-Chief formerly an attaché of the Turkish legation at Athens, and consequently, the personal appearance of many Greek officers, some of whom he recognized among the insurgents. The whole matter appears to form the basis for a grave accusation against Greek good faith.

The representative of the Associated Press has visited the greater part of the frontier line in this district and after inspecting all the passes is convinced that the Turks hold strong positions, that the Greeks will never be able to enter Turkey in force. In fact, the correspondent cannot even imagine the Greeks will make an attempt to do so, while on the other hand, the Turkish Commander-in-Chief could send a mass of troops into Greece by several routes and easily capture Larissa.

LARISSA (Headquarters of the Greek Army in Thessaly), April 15.—Severe fighting has occurred in Macedonia between the Greek irregulars and Turkish forces. The column of irregulars sent to the right from Pignatiza, after having invested and captured Sitovani, continued its march toward Kriticos, Pila, and Kourdul, with orders to hold Kourdul at all costs, as it commands the right approach to Grevena, the objective point. This column, commanded by Chiefs Zorinos and Lazaros, continued its march toward Kourdul, where it was met by two companies of Turks. After a severe fight, during which eighty Turks were killed and twenty-five were taken prisoners, the position was captured by the Greeks, who also obtained possession of 150 rifles and a quantity of cartridges.

FEROCIOUS FIGHTING.
The insurgents have suffered a severe attack in another direction. A strong force of Turkish troops from Mamecova, with a number of mountain guns, advanced on Krania, which had previously been captured by the Greeks, and attacked by the four hundred irregulars of Greece, who occupied an entrenched position. It is reported that the fighting was ferocious on both sides.

The insurgents eventually were compelled to retreat north to the mountains. Some of them, however, succeeded in breaking through the Turkish lines and escaped to Balino, the town just across the frontier, in Macedonia, first captured by the Greeks' irregular, and used by them as a depot for provisions and ammunition. The accounts given by the Turkish forces of the Greek losses are believed to be exaggerated. They say that 250 Turks were killed, while the irregulars only had eight men killed and seventeen wounded. The leader of the Greeks operating in this direction, Chief Mousa, was among the wounded, and returned later into Greek territory with a number of the refugees. One of the latter says that a squire of the Turkish force was composed of irregulars, whose dress resembles that of the Greek army. This it appears, enabled the Turkish force to execute a flank movement unheeded by the leaders of the Greeks. The refugee referred to blames the Greek leaders for badly handling the troops. All the refugees bear traces of having experienced great fatigue, and it is reported that the Ethnikai Hetairia, or National League, has ordered the Greek irregulars to retreat into Greek territory, regarding further advances as useless, unless the regular army of Greece supports the irregulars.

The Crown Princess has arrived here to take part in the work of the ambulance corps.

There is a feeling of great satisfaction here at the declarations made by Premier Delianis in the Greek Chamber of Deputies.

Three hundred Hungarian horses, intended for heavy cavalry remounts, were landed at Valparaiso yesterday, and are being forwarded to Trikhalia.

ATHENS, April 6.—A force of Greek insurgents is reported to have entered Epirus. (The statement must be accepted with reserve.)

A dispatch from Trikhalia announces that Colonel Cyrrinia, the Italian Socialist leader, has disbanded the Italian legion raised to assist the Greeks in their struggle against the Turks.

CANNONADE AT KILAVAS.
Canea, April 16.—(Island of Crete).—Cannonading has been proceeding in the direction of Kilavas since yesterday evening. The cause of the firing is not known.

TYPHUS FEVER and small-pox are raging at Hierapetra.

The Turkish troops have re-occupied the springs near Candia.

A number of prisoners have revolted here, and are being transported to the prison on the island of Rhodus.

SALONICA, April 6.—Edhem Pasha, the Turkish Commander-in-Chief, has sent home from the frontier the Albanian Gendarmes' Corps, enrolled at Monastir, which revolted. The gendarmes have been disarmed by the Vail of Monastir and are being sent here to the coast to exile in Yemen, Arabia. The Greek Consul at Monastir has refused to join their regiment.

CANEA, ISLAND OF CRETE, April 16.—The foreign admirals have offered to Colonel Vassos any medical and surgical assistance he may require for the wounded in his camp.

THE BOOK OF BOOKS.
Editor of The Times:—It is a most hopeful sign for the future that there is a growing interest in the study of God's Word as the part of numerous classes of all vocations, professions, and shades of opinion. It is a fact, too, in age, the level, and the need of interesting all readers, that the Bible is a most mysterious in its revelations and statements hard to be understood in its pages is true, but this could not be made plain when it is remembered that man is himself since his fall in Eden an imperfect creature and the things treated of by the Bible must be largely beyond his comprehension. Enough, however, is plain and intelligible to the simplest mind to save all mankind. That the Bible is in the hands of all men is a fact which the Book declares. The sun shining in meridian splendor is its own best proof that the sun exists. This wonderful book with God for its Author and subjects which it treated duration coeval with eternity, has its marks of human touch and co-operation. In its translations these marks are clear, and right here, if any where, we may discover what may seem to be defects, but even these its Great Author has provided means to overcome, and make right. A strong writer forcibly says:

"In order to express those glorious truths which for ages have been found in the world, the inspired penmen found it necessary either to invent new terms, or to use old ones in an appropriate sense, and we may be sure that God has not left us without the means of discovering the sense in which they are employed. By keeping our minds free from prejudice and carefully studying the Scriptures, comparing spiritual things with spiritual, rather than profane—and by seeking light and direction from the source of wisdom, we shall not be in much danger of receiving a pagan infection when we read in the New Testament of Theos and Tartarus, or of being perverted to Poney and Paganism by the use of the word, or of being plunged into the water when we read the command, 'Repent, and be baptized.'"

The translators of the St. James and Revised version of the Holy Scriptures did the work well. It is the general verdict that the translators in every sense to restrict the meaning of the original from which they made their translations to the verbiage they employ and give no latitude to use a little common sense, and make allowance for the number of meanings of words besides those they give us do not believe, is it not the duty of the minister of the Gospel to make these explanations to his congregations? He is a teacher, and it becomes his duty to give light on it or he should not pose as a preacher or teacher.

We will, before closing this article, notice the Greek proposition "eis" which the St. James translators frequently render in which is "to." This proposition is rendered "to" Acts viii, 40. It is rendered "at" and in the expression "Put a ring on his hand and shoes on his feet" the same proposition means "on," while in Mark i, 4, "John did baptize in the wilderness," etc., here the Greek proposition "eis" is used, which it would be absurd to render "under." Give this proposition the sense of into, it could not possibly be rendered a violation from the rule—whereas, he simply places the proposition before the noun—down from Jerusalem to Gaza, which is a desert. In fact the common sense is surprised to find any water at all in so arid a region, and in discovering it he reads, "Behold water!" He had been reading that part of Isaiah which predicted that the Messiah "should sprinkle many nations," and he desired to receive the ordinance which, as Philip doubtless informed him, symbolized the cleansing of the heart.

At the church of the Holy Trinity last evening there was assembled the largest congregation that ever gathered in that edifice.

The main body of the church, the chapel, gallery and aisles were crowded almost to suffocation, while many persons were turned away, being unable to gain admittance.

The order of the service was beautifully arranged, opening with processional hymn, "All glory, Laud and Honor," the singing of which was followed by a short service.

In the "Crucifixion" the tenor soloist was not possibly rendered as well as the soloist Mr. Arthur Servino, Mr. H. M. Phillips presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the chorus was strong and exceedingly beautiful. The soloist, Mr. Phillips, presided at the organ, and the choral work was supported by the vested choir of sixty voices.

The "Crucifixion" was perfectly rendered, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Arthur Servino, the choir director.

The work of the